Terms and Conditions

- Request for electronic communications capability and acceptance of risks: The Investor requests the ability to send instructions for trading in the Orbis Funds (subscriptions, switches, transfers and redemptions) to Citigroup and other instructions to Citigroup and Orbis (requests for reports, change of address notices and the like) in the form of electronic communications and to have them acted upon instead of the usual requirement of physically delivering original signed instructions. In consideration of their doing so, the Investor authorises Citigroup and Orbis to rely on instructions contained in electronic communications on these terms. The Investor understands that they may still elect at any time to physically deliver originals. The Investor understands and accepts that using and relying on electronic communications involves increased risk of fraud and of miscommunications including those due to a telecommunications system or equipment failure, misdirected communications or illegibility of the instructions or documents.
- Right of Citigroup or Orbis to not act on electronic communications and copies: The Investor understands and agrees that Citigroup or Orbis or both may chose not to rely on electronic communications and that they agree that whichever of them elects not to act will try to contact the Investor on the same day to advise the Investor of their decision. The Investor will not hold Citigroup or Orbis, and they will not be, responsible if they chose not to act on electronic communications.
- Allocation of risk: The Investor agrees that, as between Citigroup and Orbis on the one hand and the Investor on the other hand, the Investor will bear the risks associated with using and relying on electronic communications or copies of documents except where Citigroup or Orbis is grossly negligent or wilfully default in undertaking their respective responsibilities. The Investor agrees that except where Citigroup or Orbis is grossly negligent or wilfully default, they will not be responsible for any loss or liability the Investor incurs due to an electronic communications transmission error or due to Citigroup or Orbis relying on an instruction sent by electronic communications which they believe in good faith to be genuine. If Citigroup or Orbis incur a loss of any nature due to their acting or failing to act on electronic communications received from the Investor or due to equipment failure or any circumstances beyond the control of Citigroup or Orbis, the Investor will indemnify and keep indemnified Citigroup and Orbis from all such loss, except where Citigroup or Orbis is grossly negligent or wilfully default in undertaking their respective responsibilities.
- Other Legal Terms: This agreement will be governed by English law and the Contract Rights of Third Parties Act 1999 shall apply for the benefit only of Orbis and Citigroup and their respective successors and assigns. Orbis or Citigroup may assign their rights and obligations to anyone who takes on their responsibilities in relation to the Orbis Funds.
